

Economic Development Seminar Scholarship Application

The program is being delivered by the Aspen Institute Community Strategies Group and the LOCUS Impact Investing. This two-day seminar is for teams of two, including board members, CEOs, and staff from community, private, family, or corporate foundations and corporate giving programs.

Philanthropy WV has a limited number of scholarships available for the Building Economic Development Seminar. The scholarship will cover the recipients registration fee. Scholarship recipients will be responsible for lodging at the host hotel, meals outside of the conference, and transportation.

- We have secured a great rate of $99 +taxes at the Courtyard in Bridgeport, WV. Information on how to book a room can be found on our website www.philanthropywv.org.

To be eligible for a scholarship, an applicant must:

- Work for, serve on the board of, or be a member of PHILANTHROPY WV.
- Have at least one member of your foundation, corporate giving program, or collaboration team already registered for the program
- Demonstrate financial need and leadership activities in the philanthropic, community development, and/or economic development sectors
- Be willing to serve as a program ambassador by writing a blog post after the program to share
- Actively participate in sessions, engage with other attendees, and apply the knowledge you learn when going back to your community

Applications must be submitted no later than August 20th, 2018 to Hilaria Swisher at hilaria@philanthropywv.org. All candidates will be notified by August 24th, 2018.
