

Nick Deychakiwsky is a Program Officer at the Charles Stewart Mott Foundation, working in the Civil Society Program's Civic Space and Community Philanthropy program areas. He holds an MBA from Columbia University (1983) and worked for Mobil Oil as a supply analyst (1983-1986) before returning to school to study music and obtain a Masters of Music in choral conducting (1990). Nick moved to Ukraine in late 1990, where he worked as MBA program director at the International Management Institute – Kyiv (1990-1991), Executive Secretary of the Council of Advisors to the Parliament of Ukraine (1992), Deputy Executive Director of the International Renaissance Foundation (1993-1995), and Western NIS Regional Director at the Eurasia Foundation (1995-1999). In 2000, Nick joined the Mott Foundation and was responsible for Mott's civil society programming in Russia, Ukraine, Belarus, and Moldova until late 2006, when he commenced work on Mott's Civil Society United States and Global Philanthropy & Nonprofit Sector portfolios.

Between 2002 and 2006 Nick was first a board member and then chair of both the Russia Donors Forum and the Ukrainian Philanthropists Forum. He currently is a board member of the United Philanthropy Forum, and serves on Independent Sector's Public Policy Committee and the Global Philanthropy Forum's Steering Group. He has served as a board member of the National Council of Nonprofits (2010-2012), a member of Independent Sector's Public Policy Committee (2016-2017), and an advisory committee member of the Community Foundation for Livingston County (2010-2016).