

Charlotte Webb is Coordinator of Elementary Education for the Office of Early Learning in the West Virginia Department of Education. She is the state lead on the WV Leaders of Literacy: Campaign for Grade-Level Reading.

Charlotte received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Early Elementary Education from Emory & Henry College and Master of Arts degree in Education from University of Virginia. She is a certified Reading Specialist and holds certification in Special Education and Gifted Education as well. She has worked in education for twenty years teaching all grades K-8, Special Education, ESOL, and GED. Additionally, Charlotte has served as a Professor of Education at Carlow University in Pittsburgh, PA, and online at the University of Phoenix. Prior to joining the WV Department of Education, she worked at Learning Sciences International as Senior Staff Developer/Researcher for teacher evaluation with Dr. Robert Marzano.