

Michael D. Hill, CRPS®
Corporate Retirement Director
Institutional Consultant

Who I Am

Michael joined Graystone and its predecessor firms in 2006. Along with John, he specializes in consulting to qualified and nonqualified retirement plans and is particularly adept at identifying actionable inefficiencies in plan design and developing alternative solutions. Michael takes the lead at Graystone Charleston in conducting asset and liability funding studies, leading plan provider due-diligence, developing investment and spending policy statements and conducting manager research and monitoring results.

My Experience

Michael, John and the Graystone Charleston institutional team have been named to Barron's list of the Top 50 Institutional Advisors nationwide since 2015. Additionally, Michael is a Chartered Retirement Plan Specialist (CRPS®), a designation awarded by the College for Financial Planning to individuals who specialize in creating, implementing and maintaining corporate retirement plans. He was also named to the National Association of Plan Advisors (NAPA) list of the top 75 plan advisors under the age of 40 for 2018.

Specialty Areas

- Retirement Benefit Plan consulting
- Hospital and healthcare facility consulting
- Fiduciary Governance
- Investment Outsourcing

Related Experience

Michael's life-long love of football and Marshall University athletics has led him to be named as a trustee on the Big Green Foundation and to serve as Treasurer for the Marshall University Quarterback Club of Charleston. He is also a passionate supporter of organizations devoted to rescuing and housing homeless dogs, including the Kanawha-Charleston Humane Association.