

2019 SPRING REGIONAL MEETING – SOUTHERN REGION

May 31, 2019

12:00 PM – 2:00 PM

Bluefield Arts Center

500 Bland Street

Bluefield, WV 24701

The Spring Regional Meetings provide an opportunity for the board members, trustees, staff, advisors, and CEOs of private, family, corporate, community and public grantmaking foundations, giving programs, and individual philanthropists to learn, network, and advance their impact giving and partnerships. Join Philanthropy WV's staff, guest experts and members from across your regional community for this beneficial two hour session.

AGENDA

Lunch upon arrival

Welcome & Introductions 10 Minutes

Presentation: Guest Presenter 20 Minutes

Robert "Bob" Boone, President with Bernard McDonough Foundation

- Tackling the Opioid Use Disorder epidemic – Mr. Boone will discuss how his foundation has worked with Marshall University's Health to develop a toolkit of elements required for Huntington to turn the tide in being Ground Zero for Solutions in response to the Opioid use Disorder and Substance Use Disorder epidemic and how this toolkit can be used in your region.

Question & Answer: 10 Minutes

Philanthropy WV Update 15 Minutes

- New Program Delivery Format
- Federal and State Policy Update

Program or Service Update 10 Minutes

Hear a brief update on the Education Affinity Group, Come Home Award program and the work Philanthropy WV is doing with the 2020 Census.

Collaboration & Partnership Opportunities 45 Minutes

With a room full of your fellow trustees, board members, CEOs, program staff, and individual philanthropist, this time allows for you to discuss your current priority areas for grantmaking, new issues/programs you are working on, and identifying areas that you might want to co-fund or work on together. Bring your ideas, current grant applications, questions, and updates to share with your peers during this active facilitated discussion.

Open Forum & Evaluation 10 Minutes

Adjournment