

Sarah Baltman Wedepohl is a Senior Program Officer at the Community Foundation for Southeast Michigan and oversees the Foundation's role as both the backbone organization and a participant in the Michigan Opioid Partnership. In addition to facilitating a portfolio of grants in areas of health and well-being, she is responsible for the Foundation's participation in a comprehensive initiative focused on youth sports and activity. A native Detroiter, Sarah holds a Master of Social Work from the University of Michigan and has over twenty-five years of experience in national and local initiatives to create equitable and healthy communities.